

Department of Health

Public Health Education/Epidemiology Intern

Role and Responsibilities:

- Attend internal and external meetings to support the work of the health department as well as community partners
- Support the Public Health Emergency Preparedness program through a variety of on-site and off-site activities
- Assist the Epidemiologist with completing community health assessment related activities
- Assist in preparation for, and participation in various summer community events
- Support and enhance the department's social media presence
- Assist in other Public Health Education and communications activities

Qualifications and Education Requirements:

Must be enrolled in College or Graduate school at the time of application.

Specific Majors, coursework or backgrounds that would be helpful to this work:

Public health, Epidemiology, Communicable Disease, or other related coursework

Preferred Skills:

- Microsoft Office
- Social Media literacy
- Research skills
- Ability to work in a team setting, as well as independently
- Possess good verbal and written communication skills

Department: Department of Health – Public Health Education/Epidemiology

Location: Kern Building
1 Geneva Road
Brewster, NY 10509

Hourly Rate:

High School Student	$10
College Student	$11
Graduate Student	$12

Schedule: 28 hours/week for 8 weeks